

Data Science Basics

Data science involves extracting insights from data using statistics and machine learning.

Data cleaning and preprocessing are crucial steps.

Visualization helps communicate findings effectively.